Brainy Acts for Readers

Simple daily activities that grow confident, joyful readers

Small brainy acts for Today:

Talk about the story.

Ask "What do you think happens next?" before turning the page.

Find the sounds

Point to a word. Say it slowly. Can your child hear each sound?

Make a connection

"Does this remind you of something in your life?"
Build meaning together.

Grow a new word

Pick one word from the book. Use it together 3 times today.

Every page is a seed
to grow a reader.
